

Indiana's phone privacy laws are just fine and working well. Prior to them we were deluged with unsolicited and unwanted telemarketers. Now we have some relief. Please, please listen to our Attorney General, Steve Carter, and not change Indiana's laws or make federal changes that would weaken Indiana's phone privacy laws. We really need things to stay the way they are in Indiana!
Thanks. Tom Bullock